

The server is down. So it's not working properly.

Starting page after you first install it:

Translation: when I was young, I left my hometown because I heard the outside world is more colorful.

I have tried so many food outside but can't find the food with the exact taste from my home.

Translation:

I have been to so many cities but I can't hear the singing from cicadas.

Now, join this app and enjoy your time with people from your hometown!